

Parking

While the demand for campus parking is high, space is limited. UW-Madison offers the following options to retirees who are providing essential functions on campus.

- UW Departments can provide a Department Limited permit to retirees doing work on campus.
- UW Departments can provide a Department Temporary permit to retirees doing work on campus.
- UW Departments can let you participate in the annual priority parking assignment system and purchase a base lot permit or park-and-ride lot permit.

In addition,

- Emeriti may obtain free Temporary Permits (half-day, daily) on a space-available basis through one of the Transportation Services offices.

The following options are also available to all retirees:

- Ride the FREE campus bus.
- Some lots are available to the public free of charge after 4:30 P.M. or 10:00 P.M. See Lot Addresses/Enforcement Hours under UW Faculty/Staff & Affiliates on the web page listed below.
- Use one of our visitor stalls on campus for daily/hourly parking (meters & cashiered lots).

See web site for further information:

Privileges for UW-Madison Retirees

Academic Staff
Classified Staff
Faculty

March 2008

Privileges Retained After Retirement

There are certain privileges extended by various offices of the university to UW-Madison retirees. Nothing in these paragraphs is meant to alter other currently established policies concerning priorities for use of certain facilities by students, faculty, staff or visitors, nor is there any intent to limit the authority of individual program units to recommend such priority/use policies.

Identification Card

Retired UW-Madison employees (i.e., former employees eligible to receive WRS annuities) should retain their UW-Madison identification cards for access to university libraries, recreational and other facilities. Retirees who wish to continue using the facilities or IT tools should contact their department prior to their retirement date. The department will contact the Office of Human Resources by email: retiredid@ohr.wisc.edu

Libraries

UW-Madison retirees are eligible to use all campus libraries. A valid ID card is required (see above). Retirees are responsible for any costs or fines incurred. Spouses/partners who utilized the service prior to the employee's retirement will retain the privilege.

Recreational Facilities

UW-Madison retirees are eligible to use all campus recreational facilities. A valid university ID card is required (see above). Retirees are responsible for the annual access fee due September 1st each year (contact 262-8244).

Information Technology Tools

UW-Madison retirees may retain the information technology (IT) privileges (Internet access, WiscMail, WiscCal, My WebSpace, etc.) they used as faculty or staff members. Retirees also continue to have access to specific Division of Information Technology (DoIT) services and products. For a list of current services and products, contact the DoIT Tech Store at (608) 265-7469 or visit <http://techstore.doit.wisc.edu>. A valid UW-Madison ID card is required. For assistance with UW-Madison IT tools, call the DoIT Help Desk at (608) 264-HELP (4357) seven days a week, 6:00 A.M. to 1:00 A.M.

Wisconsin Union

Union membership options are available to all retirees. Members receive access to Union programs and services, including Mini Courses and Hoofers, and may reserve Union facilities for personal social events. A full list of benefits is available by calling 262-2263. All UW retirees are eligible to purchase a Wisconsin Union lifetime membership at the graduating student rate. This rate is good only for up to one year from retirement.

UW News

Upon request, UW-Madison retirees may receive a complimentary subscription to Wisconsin Week, the official newspaper of record for UW-Madison, at their home address. Send written requests to:

Wisconsin Week
UW-Madison
500 Lincoln Dr, Rm 134
Madison, WI 53706

The free Wisconsin Week Wire e-mail newsletter publicizes especially timely information that falls outside Wisconsin Week's biweekly publishing schedule. It's a quick, succinct update on major campus issues and events. The e-mail is delivered each Wednesday year-round. To subscribe or unsubscribe, fill out the simple form on the Web at: <http://www.news.wisc.edu/wisweek/aboutwire.html>

If you are a Web surfer, the Wisconsin Week Web site <http://www.news.wisc.edu/wisweek/> contains the full content of Wisconsin Week plus updates, and also offers a continually updated calendar of campus events.

Office Space

Departmental assignment of office space and/or laboratory space for retired faculty and staff is within the purview of each department and dean, and shall be reviewed periodically. (Contact your department administrator.)
