

Faculty Promotions

Amounts: Promotion increases can range between the fixed dollar amounts noted below (minimum amount) and a dollar amount equal to no more than ten percent of the faculty member’s base pay;

Funding: Campus will provide central funds for promotional base increases for faculty on 101 funds. The central campus funds will be equivalent to one half of the defined minimum increase amount (prorated by portion of FTE being paid on 101 funding).

Effective Date: Faculty promotions are generally effective July 1 or the first day of the academic year unless a special exception is made to have the adjustment effective January 1 or the first day of the spring semester (promotions from Assistant to Associate professor outside of the budget process require UW-System confirmation). To request an exception, please contact your Compensation and Titling rep in the Office of Human Resources.
