Travel Information

There are several airports with easy access to Madison, Wisconsin.

MSN - Dane County Regional Airport in Madison, WI - A small airport located about 5 miles (8km) from UW-Madison. Taxi rides from the MSN airport to campus cost approximately $25 one way. There is a taxi waiting area outside of baggage claim.

MKE – General Mitchell International Airport in Milwaukee, WI - The largest airport in Wisconsin, and is only an hour and a half away from campus. Badger Coaches offers daily express service from General Mitchell Airport in Milwaukee to Madison.

ORD - Chicago O'Hare International Airport in Chicago, IL - While much further from UW-Madison, flights to this airport are often much less expensive. The Van Galder bus service offers daily buses between the airport and UW-Madison.

MDW – Midway International Airport in Chicago, IL – A smaller airport on the south side of Chicago, Midway International Airport is an option but is the least convenient option. The Van Galder bus service offers daily buses between the airport and UW-Madison.

*Tickets can be purchased from the driver when you arrive, but please consult the bus schedule prior to booking your flight.

Baggage: Do not send baggage, parcels, or similar personal effects in care of the university, there are no facilities for accepting or storing personal packages sent in advance. It is less expensive to have packages mailed after your arrival.

Getting to your Housing

Calling a taxi is the easiest way to traverse the city with luggage in tow. Madison is home to several official taxi services including Badger Cab, Green Cab of Madison, Madison Taxi, and Union Cab. Taxi rides from the MSN airport to campus cost approximately $25 one way. There is a taxi waiting area outside of baggage claim.

If you request temporary housing through Madison Friends of International Students (MFIS), your housing volunteer may be able to pick you up.