

III. Designated Representative

The Director of the Classified Personnel Office (CPO) will administer and ensure compliance with the Omnibus Transportation Employee Testing Act of 1991 (The Act) for the University of Wisconsin-Madison and will be the designated authority concerning administration of the policy. The Director of the Classified Personnel Office may, in turn, designate an individual as the University's primary representative as well as additional alternate representatives to assist as needed in administering the program. See Appendix C for the name(s) of designated management representatives.
